

TUTOR BIO: ABBIE

Abbie is a First Class graduate who studied French and Spanish at King's College London. She began her career as a professional private online tutor immediately after finishing university. Abbie helps her students achieve their goals by firstly assessing their strengths and weaknesses (whether in a particular aspect of grammar, writing, speaking or something else) and then creating lesson plans and a timetable based on which areas need to be improved. Abbie believes that every student is different.

French Tutor

EDUCATION

- ♦ BA French and Spanish with a year abroad (1st Class Hons.), King's College London

TUTORING EXPERIENCE

Abbie has given more than 1000 hours of french tuition online. She has taught from year 7 through to GCSE through to A level. Ever the entrepreneur, Abbie also produces her own short video-bites on hacks for GCSE French. She has experience working with all exam boards and has also worked part-time in schools across the UK.

SUBJECTS / EXAM BOARDS

- ♦ KS3 French
- ♦ GCSE/IGCSE French : all exam boards
- ♦ A level French : specialising in L'Étranger, Amélie, Les Mains Sales, Les 400 Coups, Les Choristes, La Haine and Les Intouchables.

TESTIMONIALS

- ♦ "Abbie has been helping our son with French GCSE over the past 6 months. She is very friendly and her lessons are enjoyable and well planned out. She has a good knowledge of what to work on to improve language skills and exam grades. We are so pleased we found Abbie and wouldn't hesitate to recommend her." —Parent of GCSE Student
- ♦ "Couldn't ask for a better tutor! Abbie really helped me prepare for my French A-Level. Pushed my confidence with grammar and past papers. I can say my results show. Many thanks!" —French A level Student